

COSENTINO WINERY

NAPA VALLEY

M. Coz

*Special Note*

Each vintage of M. Coz must be a world class red wine that stands with or above the absolute best wines of the world or it won't be bottled. The number of cases made may vary greatly each year, because only the best blend works, no matter the volume. The size of the blend is determined by the smallest component.

VINTAGE: 2006

APPELLATION: Napa Valley

COMPOSITION: Estate blend of 62% Cabernet Sauvignon, 19% Cabernet Franc, 14% Merlot, 5% Malbec from Oakville, St. Helena, Pope Valley and Yountville

WINEMAKING: The individual lots were punch cap fermented and remained separate during the 36 months of barrel aging in French cooperage. It was then blended and bottled unfined.

TASTING NOTES: Appealing, complex aromas of berries, currants, sweet spices and subtle aromatic herbs. The well-textured palate delivers flavors of black cherry fruit, baking spices and Madagascar vanilla with style and class. The confident and long finish exhibits raspberry and mineral nuances.

CASES PRODUCED: 500 Cases

SUGGESTED RETAIL: $150

RELEASE DATE: June 2010
